

Victorian healthcare experience survey

KERANG DISTRICT HEALTH July - Sept 2018

 Overall, the care received was very good or good

 A staff member helped when needed within a reasonable time

 Room or ward was very clean

 Definitely involved as much as wanted in care and treatment decisions

The Victorian Healthcare Experience Survey is conducted by Ipsos Australia on behalf of the Department of Health and Human Services in public health services throughout Victoria. Results for individual health services are updated every three months.